“WHERE EARTH MEETS SKY”
Shared Inspiration

My abstracted landscape paintings are a reflection of the powerful emotional reactions that aspects of nature stir within me. My art is an honest peek into my inner relationship with the world. My process is a passionate trial of color placement, color relationships, light effects, introspection, form and pattern manipulation, and textural play. The paintings in Where Earth Meets Sky represent a turning point in my artistic development towards a freer, more abstract approach.
